Instead of cases "in through the United Kingdom and camera" being the exception, Judge Europe vid Brindisi; to the Straits | Snowden (on behalf of the Chief Justice) solemnly informs us that they are the rule: instead of cases in Chambers being taken there for the sake of convenience, we are asked to believe that the Court is used only when it suits the con-N.B. If this be not a reversal of all established practice, even according to Hongkong ideas-for some glimpses of modern enlightement have become apparent even here—then we have yet to learn where the rights of the Press or the public come in. Of course, if the Judges asserted the power of freely admitting the Press representatives into Chambers, this hole-and-corner mode of proceeding would assume a different aspect; but Judge Snowden we know has shifted the responsibility of making his Chambers public or private upon the parties in any particular case. Publicity would therefore appear to be entirely in the hands of the Judges; and we cannot but express some astonishment that this position should have been elaborately set forth in an address delivered expressly to the Press and the Public immediately in-

Leaving the public expression of opinion on the part of the Registrar out of consideration, as having been followed up by a similar proceeding from the Bench, it is worthy of note that, while not the slightest notice has been taken of the complaints made by Mr Gibbons, the most prompt measures are taken on similar representations by the Chief Justice. JUDGMENT will be delivered to-morrow morning by the Supreme Court in appeal, in the case in which an appeal was taken to the Court from a decision of the Marine Court composed of the Marine Magistrate, Captain Thomsett, Harbour Master, and the Hon. This was a case, it may be remembered, in which four men described as opium sougglers, belonging to Yau mah-ti, their names Loung Ngan, Chu Kum Sil, Loung Kwong and Wan Hi Lin, were charged with loaving the harbour without a clearance, on the 10th instant, and with being found in unlawful possession of 90 balls of opium; the Magistrates sentenced the first pris mer to three months' imprisonment with hard labour, ordering the beat and cargo to be confincated, and discharged the other prisoners, and this sentence was appealed against.

siness had been disposed of to-day, addressing the Attorney General, said before Colony. proceeding to other business he had to mike a public statement with reference to the state of business in this Court. The ries and otherwise to cartain matters. read the following statement:—

The publication of notices at the door of the Supreme C ust, on the evenlings of Friday and Saturday, with at the direction if the Chief Justice or myself, that matters now positing in the Bankruptcy and Probate Jurisdictions would be heard by the Court on Saturday and Minday (o day.) and the fact that these matters remain and iso sad of to the inconvenious of the parties concerned, render at descrable that a public at demont should be made from the Bonch with reference to the authority the Complete to acleet the place for hering, with r ference to which, as is now notorious, serum difficulties obstructing the progress of public business have arisen. The I had Justice having requested me to invasigate the subject, I have done so with much care, and now proceed to state pubacky my opini n as to pracked and past ivo enac ments. The thref Justice has acted from the first on theground that the presiding Judgein Bankcaptey and Perbate has authority to six is Chambers instead of in open Court, and to exercise jurisdiction as fully as in Court in and not and humbers, emsidering such soule of hearing is generally desirn de, and of an absolutely pacessary, while coulest (us ness might more properly be disposed of in open Court. I am informed that it has been the practice of auchomaty: Judges to exercise this discret on from the date of the Bankin toy () dihai ca (864)

The Bankingtey Orlinance contains no appeal directions as to where the Supreme Court in Bankruptcy shall hold its sittings, although the English Act (the Bankrup cy Act of 1861), from which it is principally borrowed makes provision in this respect; but the General Orders u der the Bankruptcy Ord., No. 2, providesa follows:-" The place of sitting of the Supreme Court exercising jurisdiction in Bankruptcy shall be the place at which the Supreme Court new holds, or may hold its sittings for the general business of the Court." The Supreme Court was reconstructed in 1873, and the Reconstruction Ordinance Section 31, enacts that "the Supreme Court shall hold its sittings in the present building, or in such other place as the Governor shall from time to time appoint." The Court, i.e., in this case the Judges, may therefore sit in any part of the building for the despatch of busin-as.

Then by Section 2, of the same Ordinance, it is enacted that the word "Court" shall mear the Supreme Court, and shall mean the Chief Justice and the Puisne Judge, sitting together or separately in Court or in Chambers. If then the Supreme Court may sit in Chambers in its highest jurisdiction by two Judges or by one, and as Order 2, which I have just quoted from General Rules under Backruptcy Ordinance, makes the place for holding ittings in Bankruptey the same as that used by the Suprema Co rt, it follows that one Judge may sit in Chambers in Bankruptcy also.

It has been I am told the constant practice of the Chief Justice to hear administrative as distinguished from contested Bankruptcy matters in Chambers, except when it has been convenient to take them in open Court.

Speaking for myself I have more usually taken Bankruptoy matters in open Court, although I have often taken such business in Chambers.

I was under the impression that in the absence of 'express direction in our Bank ruptoy Ordinance it was the more correct practice; when however this question arose it larceny as a servant, was on the 18th, conits present aspect I referred to the fountain | vioted for having, he being employed by of the law as applicable to proceedings while in the employ of the said Bank. under our Banksuptey Ordinance, the stolen 500 five-dollar notes, the property of hearing should be in Chambers, although the said Corporation, on the 4th August. entirely subject to the discretion of the

A little consideration will show how im-

A judgment debtor's summons is a yet more dangerous instrument, and may be obtained (see 20, Bankruptcy Ordinanc) upon the order of any Court having the power to order the paymen of money, and the Court making the order may be the Supreme Court sitting in Summary Jurisdiction amongst others.

It is true that by Sec. 42 damages may be obtained against a peritioning credit r trandulently or maliciously filing such a petition; but damages would at the best afford very madequate satisfaction for the inj ry sustained.

So much for bankruptcy business. As to proceedings in probate it is expressly provided by Sec 20 of 8 of 1860, the Probate Ordinance, that it shall be lawful for the Judge for the time being to sit in Chambers for the despatch of such busine s of the Court under this Ordinance as can in the opinion of the Jud e with advantage to the auttors be heard in Chambers, and the times at which such sittings enall be held shall from time to time be fixed by the Judge. London, Oct. 8.—It is stated that England has proposed and that the Great Powers have agreed to occupy and lay an embargo on the chief ports in the Ægean sea with the object of stopping supplies consigned to Constantinople, and that the Admirals of the several fleets have been instructed accordingly.

Simia, Sept. 24.—General Primroso's report is said to be extremely imperfect. I appears that Col. St. John first approved of the despatch of troops to the Helmund General Burrows is said to attribute the defeat at Maiwand to the indecision of Col. Malcolmson and Major Currie, the Commandants of the Scinde and Bombay Horse, and to have declared that, had they charged material of pleading the demoralization of their men, Ayub would have been defeated. This, it is supposed, accounts for Major Currie's and Colonel Malcolmson's suspension. It is also affirmed positively, on good authority, that General Primrose and ieueral Burrows are themselves responsibl for the failure of the sortie. Genera Brooke was carrying a village when General Primrose, by General Burrows' advice. rdered the attacking party to retire. The necessity for a thorough investigation is clearer than ever, Allahabad, Sept. 24.—A vast amount of vidence upon the purely military aspec f the Maiwand defeat has been taken by the Court of Inquiry. As regar s the fficers suspended, it may be stated broadly tuat a cavalry charge ordered by General Burrows through General Nuttall was not made, and further that during the retreat our guas were left practically unsupported while some 500 of the 3rd Cavalry and 3rd Sind Horse were available for that duty. It is suggested that in justice to those who strove to organize an orderly retirement, when they found the enemy had slackened their pursuit, a Commission should be assembled to take action upon the report of the Committee of Inquiry.

Kekaran and the villages quite near are said to have been the chief fonders, and retribution, even to laying waste such villages, should now be fully exacted. Their lababitants had always been well treated by us and had not the excase of the mea of Zemindawar, who scarcely acknowledged the Wall's authority. If the political authorities here consider retributive measures inadvisable, their reasons should be given, as an exemption from punishment of any kind will encourage turbulent villagers to a repetition of the offence in future. Are the muticous sepoys of the Wali's army also to be allowed to return as if nothing courred? Surely an enactment might be made that no sepoy should be allowed to return home who did not surrender all arms, ammunition, &c, he possesses; death to be the penalty for disobedience. The farce of making a puppet prince here ruler, with a band of ruffiant to represent his army, should be pretty well played out by this. Some steps might also be taken to stop the humiliating exhibition of officers of the garrison walking about with maked swords and drawn revolvers in their hands. Kandahar might be thought as unsafe for Europeans to venture into as Mecon itself and yet there are more than 20,000 of our troops supposed to be holding the place and line of communications. Simia, Tuesday Rivening, (Sept. 28.) -

The despatches of General Primrose and General Burrows, relating to the disaster at Maiwand, have been published to-day in a "Gazette Extraordinary," together with the severe comment thereon of the Viceroy and the Commander-in-Chief.

General Primrose reports:-(1.) That on the basis of the political information he recommended the despatch of a brigade to the Helmund.

(2) The Government sanctioned this. but not allowing the crossing of the Helmund, or the weakening of the Khelat i-Gbilzai garrison.

(3.) The force marched on the 3rd July. leaving only 2 463 effectives at Kandahar, but he considered himself safe, as according to the news of the previous day, three Infantry and one Cavalry Regiments, and one Artillery Battery were advancing to reinf rea him.

(4) On the 23rd July the 4th N. I. were complete and part of 28th N.I. had seached him. e therefore had arranged to send 230 rank and file to General Burrows, but the retirement from Nakhul and the defeat at Maiwand occurred before the plan was c rried cut.

(5) He had given General Burrows reguiar and full instructions from Simla, to the effect that he was to use his own judgment and prevent Ayoub slipping past him towards Ghazni, General Burrows reports :--

1. That for the purpose of preventing this be must intercept Ayoub at Maiwand or at Nakhud. 2. That it was impossible to precure reliable information, yet hearing Ayoub was marching in the direction of Maiwand he started at 6.30 a.m. on the 27 July, encumbered by an enormous quantity of ordinance and commissariat stores and bagage.

3 After 8 miles march he saw Ayoub's force four miles off. 4. The baggage then was placed in a village a mile ahead and the infantry deployed further on. The enemy numbered about
